Multiplicity of Ballots Causing Much Trouble in Counting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- The multiplicity of ballots given to voters in the election booths is to so liberalize and broaden the demo the official count. In one Long Island City district the county clerk reports the returns are badly mixed up. The vote for school trustees was given to the candidates for city treasurer and the city treasurer's vote was given to the candidates for school trustees. Herman Drier, a candidate for school trus tee, received ninety-eight votes for city treasurer. Thomas Boyle, another candidate for school trustee, received fifty-three for city treasurer, and Felix Hughes, another candidate for school trustee, gets the votes for city treasurer. F. W. Bleckwenn, who was the absence of official returns the following defeated for the city treasurership by Lucius and Lucius Knapp, who was elected treasurer, is given 102 votes for school trustee. The uncertainty about the board of alder-

COUNT HIM OUT

Railroad Conspirators Contemplating a Treasonable Assault on the Ballot.

PLANS TO DEFRAUD JUDGE HOLCOMB

Where Returns Cannot Be Tamper.d with Contests Are to Ee Started.

ASSISTANCE FROM THE WORLD-HERALD

Wobbly Old Sheet Doing What it Can to Aid the Daring Gang.

SECRET OF ITS WONDERFUL FIGURES

Election Returns Evidently Manipulated in the Interest of the Defeated Aspirant for the Governorship-Tips from the Head of the Gang.

The treasonable conspiracy to count out Judge Holcomb by doctoring the official returns and by tampering with the ballots has taken practical shape.

Several conferences were held yesterday at Burlington headquarters and at the 83; Millard hotel, having in view a pretended contest, which in reality contemplates the counting out of the governor-elect. In the Piper, 841; Wolf, 50; Bauman, 78; E. Moore, 831; Smith, 100; Wilson, 1,171; Bartley, 724; Breidenthal, 68; Luikart, 33; Pond, 85; Powers, political attorney of the Burlington, who came up from Lincoln in the morning, was closeted with Czar Holdrege and then returned post haste to Lincoln, from which point operations are to be directed. H. J. Davis of Omaha, a member of the kitchen Sainders, 886 Stanton, 1,192.

PERKINS COUNTY—H. E. Goodall, republican, defeated C. P. Legan, independent, for country attorney by 135 majority.

PERKINS COUNTY—Complete vote; Holquarters of the state committee. According at once called into requisition for the desperate criminal work, and a dozen are to be dispatched on the early morning trains over the various roads to the various seats where it is thought reasonably safe to manipulate the county clerks and boards of canvassers with a view of doctoring the figures so as to make a prima facie case on the face of the returns as transmitted to the secretary of state. In case of failure to consummate this villainous work it is proposed to have a contest trumped up under pretense that the count in certain precincts of various countles was incorrect and would, if revised, wipe out Holcomb's majority. This process would be somewhat tedious and opportunities would be given to the sleek workers in collusion with county clerks or their deputies to substitute fraudulent ballots. It is an open secret that the chief proprietor of the alleged organ of democracy published in this city has long been conniving with the railroad gang to defeat Holcomb. His cloven foot was shown long before the campaign and many times during the contest, and by the double column bargain to knife Holcomb, for which the Majors campaigners contracted with him. On the night of the election Hitchcock publicly congratulated the Majors jamboree gang upon the triumph of the tattooed candidate. It is also known that Hitchcock personally has taken charge of compiling the state election returns, excluding Bryan and other members of the staff who have always been in charge of the news department. That Holcomb, 1,764; Majors, 2,197; Sturdevant, 210; R. E. Moore, 2,105; Gaffin, 1,611; Dun-phy, 332; Piper, 2,105; McFadden, 1,003; El-lick, 671; Rolf, 2,103; Eugene Moore, 2,107; alone explains the bogus election bulletins and fictitious claims for Majors sent out to the eastern press from the World-Herald office. Night before last, for instance, the World-Herald wired to the United press that Majors had carried the state by 2,000 plurality, when the returns in their own office showed at least 2,500 for Holcomb.

> * CLAIM THE WORLD-HERALD. It is openly boasted at the Millard hotel railroad headquarters that the World-Herald has been enrolled on the side of the corporate combination. This report was fully confirmed last night when it became known that the Majors managers had sent out telegrams to committeemen and railroad organs that the returns show that Majors has 911 plurality, although the official returns and the most moderate estimates from the countles from which returns have not been received, give Holcamb fully 2,500 plurality.

On the heels of this announcement it was given out last night that the World-Herald would fall in line with any statement, claim or scheme that would emanate from the strikers and heelers of the Burlington to back up the conspiracy to count Holcomb out. It remains now to be seen whether the people of Nebraska will take any stock in these fraudulent election returns or whether they will countenance any attempt to defraud the people of their choice of governor. GIVEN POINTERS FROM HOLDREGE.

In confirmation of the fact that this plot to count Judge Holcomb out is not a figment of the imagination, it may be stated that Captain Palmer, who has a number of bets on Majors pending, told Frank Moores in front of the New York Life building to "wait till you hear from Holdrage before you give up on Majors." To Steve Crow, who has one bet with Palmer himself, he said he must wait till the 1st of January before he would give up. That was a sufficiently large straw that the plot to count out Judge Holcomb is not a myth. The Bee is determined to expuse every man connected with this infamous plot, and within forty-eight hours will print the names of the bribe dispensers who have taken the cantract to tamper with the returns and ballot
